America

My Country, 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
    Of thee I sing;
Land where my fathers died,
Land of the pilgrim's pride,
From every mountain side
    Let freedom ring.

My native country, thee,
Land of the noble, free,
    Thy name I love ;
I love thy rocks and rills,
Thy woods and templed hills.
My heart with rapture thrills,
    Like that above.

Let music swell the breeze,
And ring from all the trees
    Sweet freedom's song ;
Let mortal tongues awake,
Let all that breathe partake,
Let rocks their silence break,
    The sound prolong.

Our fathers' God, to thee,
Author of liberty !
    To Thee we sing ;
Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light,
Protect us by thy might,
    Great God, our King.

SAMUEL FRANCIS SMITH.
Written in 1832.

By-Laws.

ARTICLE I.

Name.

The name of this Chapter shall be "Cuyahoga Portage Chapter of The Daughters of the American Revolution."

ARTICLE II.

Membership.

Section 1. Every application for membership must be signed by three members of the Chapter, who can vouch for the acceptability of the applicant, before being presented to the Registrar.

Sec. 2. The Registrar shall then present the application to the Committee of Safety.

Sec. 3. If elected by the Committee of Safety, the applicant shall make a written proof of qualification in the form prescribed by the National Society to the Registrar, accompanied by the entrance fees and dues for the current year with postage. The application shall then be endorsed by the Regent, Secretary and Registrar and transmitted to the National Society for final action.

Sec. 4. The membership fee shall be that prescribed by the National Society.

ARTICLE III.

Officers.

Sec. 1. The officers of the Chapter shall consist of a Regent, Vice-Regent, Secretary, Corresponding Secretary, Treasurer, Registrar, Historian and Committee of Safety, who shall hold their offices during the term of one year and until their successors are elected and qualified, and be elected by ballot at the annual meeting of the Chapter.

Sec. 2. The Regent shall be the chief executive officer of this Chapter, and shall preside at all meetings of the Chapter and of the Committee of Safety. She shall have such powers and perform such duties as usually appertain to the presiding officer of educational and patriotic organizations. She shall sign all warrants drawn on the Treasurer for moneys duly appropriated; execute all instruments authorized by the Chapter; enforce the constitution of the National Society, and the by-laws, rules and regulations of this Chapter; appoint auditing and program committees and all committees not otherwise provided for; and make full reports and recommendations at the regular meetings of the Chapter and at the end of her term of office.

Sec. 3 In case of the absence of the Regent or inability to discharge the powers and duties of her office, the same shall devolve on the Vice-Regent. And in case of the resignation or death of the Regent, the Vice-Regent becomes Regent, and a Vice-Regent shall be appointed by the Safety Committee.

Sec. 4. The Secretary shall keep a record of all the proceedings of the Chapter and of the Committee of Safety in separate books; keep a registrar of its members; give notice of meetings when duly elected so to do; notify officers of orders and votes pertaining to them; have charge of the charter, by-laws and papers on file; draw and sign all warrants on the treasurer for moneys duly appropriated, present them to the Regent for her signature, and sign all documents properly authorized or ordered. She shall make a full report of the administration of her office to the Chapter at the end of her term, and deliver to her successor all of the books, records, documents, vouchers and property of the Chapter in her charge and take a receipt therefor.

Sec. 5. The Corresponding Secretary shall conduct the correspondence of the Chapter, except that within the duty of another officer. She shall have charge and distribution of all pamphlets, rosettes and supplies. She shall preserve a copy of all letters transmitted and keep on file the letters and communications received by her, and perform such other duties as the Committee of Safety may order. Shall notify the Corresponding Secretary General and State Regent of the election of the Chapter officers and delegates.

Sec. 6. The Treasurer shall collect the funds; send promptly all fees and dues to the Treasurer General. She shall pay out moneys only upon written order countersigned by the Regent and Secretary. She shall keep a just and accurate account of all her receipts and disbursements, and at each annual meeting shall render the same to the Chapter, when a committee shall be appointed to audit her accounts.

Sec. 7. The Registrar shall keep a book in which to register the names, dates of election, resignation and death of members; have supervision and custody of applications for membership, accompanying fees and proofs of qualifications. She shall refer to the Committee of Safety all applications, and forward to the Registrar of the National Society applications approved by the Committee of Safety. She shall notify applicants of their election or rejection, and deposit with the Treasurer the fees of each elected applicant for transmission to the Treasurer General.

Sec. 8. The Historian shall keep a record of all historical and commemorative and social meetings of the Chapter; and shall prepare for official publication historical and biographical sketches of members, and such other historical papers as the objects of the Chapter demand. She shall be provided with a book in which the members shall register the names of each revolutionary patriot represented in the Chapter, together with the family line traced to the member claiming descent, the names of the member's children, dates and places of birth, residence, and all historical particulars necessary to keep a record reference for future generations.

ARTICLE IV.

Section 1. The Committee of Safety shall consist of all officers of the Chapter, together with seven other members. This committee shall pass upon the qualifications of a candidate for membership and take action upon the same by ballot. Three negative ballots reject the application. The members of this committee shall not disclose to each other, nor any member of the Chapter, the nature of their ballots.

Sec. 2. It shall recommend plans for promoting the object of the Society, consider and prepare business, and may authorize the expenditure and disbursement of unappropriated moneys in the treasury of the Chapter. This committee shall have the power to fill vacancies in office until the annual meeting; shall exercise a supervisory care over the affairs of the Chapter, and perform such other duties as may be intrusted to it.

Sec. 3. Five members of the committee shall constitute a quorum.

ARTICLE V.

Meetings.

Section 1. The annual meeting of this Chapter shall be held on the first Monday in June of each year, and a Social Anniversary Meeting on the 25th of January, at which time the dues shall be paid.

Sec. 2. The regular meeting of this Chapter shall be held on the first Monday of each month, except July, August and September. Special meetings may be called at any time by the Regent or by the Committee of Safety. Delegates and Alternates shall be elected at the January meeting.

Sec. 3. At any meeting of this Chapter, seven members shall constitute a quorum.

ARTICLE VI.

Amendments.

Section 1. These by-laws may be amended at any regular meeting of the Chapter, two-thirds of the members present concurring therein, written notice of the proposed amendment having been given at a previous regular meeting, and written notice thereof having been mailed by the Corresponding Secretary to each member of the Chapter, at least five days before the meeting at which action on the proposed amendment is to be taken.

Sec. 2. On vote of two-thirds of the members present, the by-laws may be set aside and officers or applicants elected by acclamation.
